

Sticky FX Terms and Conditions

User License Agreement:

(Limit of one station/person/production company per purchased library).

Please read this document carefully before purchasing the Sticky FX Library associated with this end-user license agreement (EULA).

This EULA is a legal agreement that grants you (licensee) the use of one Sticky FX Library within certain limitations. It also contains important information on warranty issues and liability disclaimers. When buying a library from Sticky FX Productions, based in The Netherlands (licensor), you must agree to the terms of this EULA between you (individual or entity) and Sticky FX Productions. By downloading and buying the library, you understand that you are bound to the terms stated in this agreement. If you do not wish to be bound by this license, do not buy the Sticky FX Library.

This license is non-exclusive, and allows for usage of the elements of the library purchased by you only in the specific manner described in this license. All sounds are created and owned by Sticky FX Productions. The licensee acknowledges and agrees that all rights, including copyright of the Sticky FX Productions Libraries, are owned solely by Sticky FX Productions, The Netherlands. The licensee agrees and accepts that failure to comply, without prior written approval of licensor, is a breach of contract and the licensor's consent for the use of the library shall automatically terminate.

This license extends for as long as the sound effects and music is used by you; however, Sticky FX Productions may immediately terminate this license if you violate any of the terms and conditions contained herein.

All elements of your Sticky FX Library are royalty-free and may be used for any (broadcast) production, podcast, video game and movie. You may use the Sticky FX Library for your own productions, but you may not sub-license, transfer, resell, or repackage the elements in any manner to any third party. The Sticky FX Library may be distributed only within produced work of the licensee, and shall not be sold, rented, or leased in whole or in part. The elements may not be used or resold as commodities in themselves.

You may only use and/or resell elements of the Sticky FX Library when they are used as part of a media production where the original element is part of the production and will not appear as the only original element. The elements may not be traded or exploited for profit or for any other reason.
